the work of repairing the bungalow, but in the rules in force for the occupation of Travellers' bungalows no such exemption is allowed.

From the statement of the Retd of the bungalow, it is clear that the Ex. Engr occupied one of the rooms of the bungalow - the repairs of which had already been completed, & also made use of the Kitchen & the Stables. It is also stated that the Supdt of Police also occupied a portion of the bungalow when it was under repairs & had paid the prescribed fee.

Before passing final orders, the Chief Engr may be consulted in the matter.

hg hm 6/8/14 Three appeals [illegible] Engr [illegible] Chief Engr [illegible] The question for consideration is whether the Engr had not occupied a room in repairs of which had been completed and also made use of the kitchen & stables. What has the Engr to say in regard this? If this is accepted by the Engr — it must be presumed that they apply the principle & the Police Supdt has likewise paid also — the Engr has to say in what is the provision for exemption [illegible] the Engr to [illegible] expenses & the above discounts, [illegible]. hg 7/8/14. pto.

I do not think that the Sewer Engineer is justified in claiming exemption from payment of fee for occupation of the Bungalow and it is surprising that he should put forward such a plea. The fee should, I think, be recovered from him.

It is a fact that the Executive Engineer occupied a room in the Travellers' Bungalow and used both the kitchen and the outhouses on the 8th, 9th, 11th and 12th January 1914. I am of opinion that he should under the rules pay the prescribed rent, though the building was under repairs at the time.

A copy of Executive Engineer's No.544 dated the 18th August 1914, is attached hereunto for information.

Letter No.544 dated 18/19th August 1914, from the Executive Engineer, Chitaldrug Division, Chitaldrug, to the Chief Engineer of Mysore, Bangalore.

With reference to your No.7680 dated 14.8.1914, request -ing to report as to whether or not I occupied a room in the First Class Travellers' Bungalow at Hiriyur on the 8th, 9th, 11th and 12th January 1914 and made use of the kitchen and stables, etc., I have the honour to report that I occupie a room in Travellers' Bungalow and used both kitchen and outhouses on the 8th, 9th, 11th and 12th to my greatest inconvenience as the building was under repairs. Every time I occupied the building for my personal comforts, I have paid the fees. This time I had to occupy the building to its own benefit. It is not true that any room or kitchen was quite ready for comfortable occupation and use. The kitchen and the main building were still under repairs on account of Their Highness' visit to Marikanave. Only the outhouses were alright. I could have halted elsewhere, but I thought my personal attention to the repairs on such occasion was necessary and accordingly subjected myself to inconvenience. At any rate, I do not grudge to pay the fees if the same considered just in such cases.
